Dear Sirs:

I take pleasure in presenting to you herewith 19 pieces of Mexican paper money as described in the accompanying list. The coins I have run only to 50 centavos and as they are common are probably already all in your possession, so that I will keep the ones I have for the small amateur collection of a friend. I shall be glad if such of these bills as are not duplicates might be added to the Society's collection.

I shall take great pleasure in accepting your kind invitation to call at the Society's museum and rooms.

Very truly yours,

Gordon Ireland

Dear Sir:-

I beg to acknowledge the nineteen pieces of paper money you sent to us a while ago.

We had only three or four of these bills and were very glad to be able to add what you sent to us to our collection. A formal acknowledgement will be sent you.

I beg to thank you for the interest you have shown us and remain,

Yours very truly,

Curator.
